From: Ira J. Minor
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/29/01 8:56am
Subject: Microsoft settlement

The most significant settlement idea has never been mentioned. It would be to require PC manufacturers to offer PC's with NO pre-installed software. PC buyers would then buy their software of choice on CD's. This would give all software developers a level playing field. In short, STOP PC MANUFACTURERS FROM BUNDLING SOFTWARE WITH THEIR HARDWARE!

Ira Minor, iminor@bellsouth.net